The Northeastern Conference Office of Education operates five schools in the New England area and five in the state of New York, offering a complete educational journey from PK-12.

The aim of Adventist education is to lead students into an encounter with Christ and, through this experience, allow them to be transformed and reflect His image in their lives. This education goes beyond academics, fostering the balanced development of the whole person: spiritual, physical, intellectual, and social-emotional, in a way that shapes character and prepares students for lifelong growth and service.

NORTHEASTERN CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS®

Greetings, Beloved brothers and sisters,

Once again, by the grace of God, we have arrived at that sacred time of year when the people of God gather from every corner of the Northeastern Conference for a season of spiritual refreshing and holy fellowship. It is astonishing how quickly the year has flown by. It appears as if Camp Meeting 2025 occurred only yesterday. Yet here we are again!

This year, we do not gather merely out of tradition, but we do so with renewed urgency and steadfast passion for proclaiming the everlasting gospel and preparing a people for the imminent return of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. God is calling us higher. He is summoning His people to ELEVATE — to rise above the distractions of this world, to deepen our devotion, and to expand our witness with holy boldness. The Northeastern Conference has long been a vehicle of truth, a vessel of service, and a voice of hope in a troubled world. Now, as we look upward and press forward, we answer that call together. To God be the glory.

Our theme this year is “ELEVATE.” Inspired by Isaiah 40:31 — “But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles” — this theme reflects our collective cry to rise higher in worship, in witness, and in our walk with God. To ELEVATE is to surrender our limitations and allow the Holy Spirit to lift us to new heights of faith and purpose.

Already, we are witnessing God’s Spirit at work — hearts transformed, souls surrendered, and lives uplifted into the joy and hope of salvation. We are not ascending in our own strength; we are being carried on the wings of God’s grace!

NORTHEASTERN CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS®
115-50 Merrick Boulevard, Jamaica, NY 11434 • +1 (718) 291 8006

As we convene over the next two weekends here at Victory Lake Camp and Conference Center and during the week at the Berea Boston Seventh-day Adventist Church, I urge you to surrender afresh to the moving of the Holy Spirit. May this sacred assembly be more than a program of activities. May it be a personal elevation — a moment when God lifts you higher than you have ever been. May it renew your faith, reignite your calling, and restore your vision for kingdom service.

On behalf of the entire Northeastern Conference Administration, we extend a warm and heartfelt welcome to each of you. A special welcome is also extended to our invited guests and speakers who have come to share in this holy convocation. Your presence is both a blessing and a testimony that God is still moving among His people.

Let us worship together. Let us pray together. Let us serve together. And let us prepare together because Jesus is coming soon!

PASTOR DANIEL KELLY, JR.

SENIOR PASTOR

MARANATHA SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Pastor Daniel Kelly Jr. was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. He attended Flatbush Seventh-day Adventist School in East Flatbush and worshiped at Brooklyn Faith Seventh-day Adventist Church. As a proud member of the Brooklyn Faith Knights Pathfinder Club, he successfully led the drum corps for several years.

While attending Northeastern Academy, Pastor Kelly received his call to ministry at the age of 17. In response, he enrolled at Oakwood University, where he studied Pastoral and Evangelistic Theology. During his time there, he received the 2008–2009 Homiletics Award, presented to students who demonstrate exceptional preaching ability.

Throughout his ministry, Pastor Kelly has conducted evangelistic crusades, Weeks of Prayer, revivals, and worship services across the United States and internationally. He most recently served as Lead Pastor of Trinity Worship Center Seventh-day Adventist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. During his more than seven years of service—the longest pastoral tenure in the church’s history—he helped lead the congregation through the successful purchase of a church facility valued at more than $3 million after 15 years of renting.

Pastor Kelly currently serves as Senior Pastor of the Maranatha Seventh-day Adventist Church in Atlanta, Georgia. His ministry is inspired by 1 Corinthians 9:16: “Woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel.” He often says, “I love the Lord, and I love preaching His Word. I cannot wait until He returns.”

ELDER DANA C. EDMOND

FORMER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

OFFICE OF REGIONAL CONFERENCE MINISTRIES
HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA

Elder Edmond was born in Cleveland, Ohio, the second of four children of the late James and Marcelle Edmond. He is a proud and grateful product of Seventh-day Adventist education, from grade school through graduate school.

After graduating from Oakwood in 1978, he began his ministry in the Northern Caribbean Conference on the island of St. Thomas, where he served as both pastor and church school teacher. In 1982, he accepted a call to the South Central Conference, where he served for 36 years as pastor, Youth Director, Conference Executive Secretary, and Conference President.

In 2018, Elder Edmond accepted a call to the Office of Regional Conference Ministries, serving as Executive Director until his retirement on December 31, 2025. Altogether, he served the Seventh-day Adventist Church for 47½ years, a privilege he describes as beyond what he “can describe or deserve.”

Now retired, Elder Edmond serves as a local elder at Nashville Hillcrest Seventh-day Adventist Church, sings in the choir, volunteers weekly at the church school, coordinates publication of The Regional Voice, and writes a Monday Facebook devotional series, “Monday Moments of Meditation.”

He has been married to Jill Robinson Edmond for nearly 48 years. They have two adult children, Courtney Edmond Campbell and Robert James “R.J.” Edmond, and four grandchildren.

WELCOME

Welcome to the 2026 Camp Victory Lake Uniformed Ministries Weekend! We are excited to gather Adventurers, Pathfinders, TLTs, Master Guides, staff, families, and guests for a weekend of worship, fellowship, leadership development, outdoor experiences, and spiritual growth.

Throughout this weekend, participants will explore what it means to be Elevated Through God's Calling—answering His invitation to serve, lead, and impact others for Christ.

May every activity, worship experience, and interaction strengthen our commitment to God and His mission.

PASTOR JOHN MARVIN SCOTT

YOUTH, YOUNG ADULT, AND ADVENTIST CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP (ACF) MINISTRIES DIRECTOR

ONTARIO CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS OSHAWA, CANADA

Pastor John Marvin Scott is a pastor, speaker, mentor, and leadership developer who is passionate about helping people discover their God-given potential, live with purpose, and lead with confidence and authenticity. He believes that empowered individuals can make a meaningful impact in their communities and advance the Kingdom of God.

He currently serves as the Youth, Young Adult, and Adventist Christian Fellowship (ACF) Ministries Director for the Ontario Conference and as Chairperson of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada (SDACC) Youth Advisory. Through these roles, he mentors and equips young leaders across Canada for effective ministry and service.

Born in Toronto and raised in Trinidad and Tobago, Pastor Scott sensed God's call to ministry at an early age. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Ministerial Theology from Oakwood University and a Master of Divinity degree from Andrews University. He is currently pursuing a PhD in Human Relationships at Wilfrid Laurier University.

His ministry has taken him throughout Canada, the Caribbean, Central America, England, South Asia, Bermuda, and the United States. In his leisure time, Pastor Scott enjoys reading, sports, cooking, and nature walks. His personal ministry motto is: "Not I, but Christ."

PASTOR GLEN O. SAMUELS

PRESIDENT

JAMAICA UNION OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS®
KINGSTON, JAMAICA

Pastor Glen O. Samuels, President of the West Jamaica Conference, is a respected church leader, evangelist, and administrator whose ministry has spanned several decades. Born in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica, he earned a Bachelor of Theology from West Indies College (now Northern Caribbean University) and a Master of Theology from Andrews University.

Throughout his ministry, Pastor Samuels has served as a district pastor, Sabbath School and Personal Ministries Director, Ministerial Fraternity President, Ministerial Secretary, Executive Secretary, and Conference President. He also served the West Indies Union Conference as Executive Secretary, Ministerial Secretary, and Personal Ministries Director.

A gifted communicator, he was speaker-director of the national television ministry Behold He Cometh from 1995 to 2002 and has served as speaker of the Word of Hope telecast since 2002. In 2010, he was elected Ministerial Secretary and Sabbath School & Personal Ministries Director of the newly formed Jamaica Union Conference.

Pastor Samuels has conducted evangelistic campaigns, seminars, revivals, and leadership training programs throughout the Caribbean, North America, Europe, and Latin America. He has also served as a guest speaker at major General Conference events, including the World Ministerial Council and General Conference Session.

Passionate about spiritual renewal and mission, he is supported in ministry by his wife, Durcella. They have three daughters and remain committed to serving God and helping others.

AMELIA GEORGE

YOUNG SPEAKER

FIRST SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST OF TEANEACK
(ALLEGHENY EAST CONFERENCE)

Amelia George is an articulate, intelligent, conscientious, 6th grader. She enjoys creating science experiments, reading books, singing, and traveling. Amelia has an entrepreneurial spirit, when she was in the 4th grade she started and operated her very own slime business where she made and sold a variety of slime and products from her 4th grade class.

She loves the Lord, and is an active member of the Lebanon Crusaders Pathfinder club, she is a national bible bowl champion, honor student, active member of her school's praise dance group and student government treasurer. This year she was inducted into the National Junior honor society for her outstanding leadership, scholarship citizenship and character.

Amelia wants to become a lawyer, scientist, or engineer. Those who know her have come to appreciate her ability to advocate for others. This year after observing a student bullying another student she jumped into action advocating for the safety of the student.

Amelia's parents are incredibly proud of the remarkable young woman she is growing into. She is the daughter of Dr. Shonelle George a clinical psychologist and Wellnes advocate, and Dr. Abdele George, pastor of the First Seventh-day Adventist Church of Teaneck in the Allegheny East Conference.

CALEB WILKS

YOUNG SPEAKER

LEBANON SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

Caleb Wilks is the son of Pastor Courtney and Dr. Seanna-Kaye Wilks. He is 8 years old and a rising fourth-grade student at Northeastern Adventist Academy's Queens campus. An active athlete, Caleb enjoys playing soccer and basketball, as well as swimming.

He is a member of the Lebanon Falcons Adventurer Club and a baptized member of the Lebanon Seventh-day Adventist Church. Caleb also sings tenor with the Kingdom Kids Choir.

In his free time, Caleb enjoys spending time with family and friends, playing video games with his dad, and having meaningful conversations with his mom. His cheerful personality, love for God, and enthusiasm for life make him a blessing to those around him.

His favorite Bible verse is Joshua 1:9: "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

DR. PIERRE E. OMELER

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS®
SILVER SPRING, MARYLAND

Dr. Pierre E. Omeler, General Vice President of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and Chairman of the AUA Board of Trustees, has devoted more than 38 years to pastoral and administrative leadership, advancing the church's mission through evangelism, education, and strategic growth.

Born into an Adventist family in Haiti, he felt called to ministry at an early age, preaching his first sermon at age 11 and serving as a literature evangelist in Haiti, Canada, and the United States. He earned a bachelor's degree in theology from Oakwood University (1986), a Master of Divinity from Andrews University (1991), and a Doctor of Ministry from United Theological Seminary (2015).

As a pastor, Dr. Omeler led significant church growth, planted congregations, strengthened stewardship, and launched the first 40 Days of Prayer and Fasting initiative in 1997, which later inspired a global movement. His leadership extended through the Northeastern Conference, Atlantic Union Conference, and North American Division, where he oversaw ministries serving more than 45,000 members and 101 pastors.

Elected Atlantic Union Conference President in 2021, he championed evangelism, youth engagement, and leadership development through initiatives such as Global TMI, Mission at Home, and the Union Conference School of Evangelism. A published author and advocate for cross-cultural ministry, he has been married to his wife, Myra, for 39 years. They have three adult children and four grandchildren.

PASTOR WOODSON LARÊCHE

ORDINAND

QUEENS, NEW YORK

Pastor Woodson Larêche is a third-generation Seventh-day Adventist minister whose life and ministry have been shaped by a deep commitment to faith, service, and Christian education. Born in Haiti and raised in a pastoral family, he is the son of retired Pastor Jeanel Larêche and Sister Marthe Larêche. He completed his secondary education at Vertières Seventh-day Adventist School in Haiti.

He is married to Dr. Yonide Justinvil Larêche, a distinguished clinician specializing in clinical nursing and psychiatric mental health. Together they have shared nearly 31 years of marriage and are blessed with two accomplished sons, including Dr. Woodlin Larêche and Woodel Larêche, a doctoral student in Occupational Therapy.

Pastor Larêche has served the church in numerous capacities, including elder, Bible worker, youth director, music director, and Master Guide. A graduate of Andrews University with a Bachelor of Arts in Religion, he is currently pursuing graduate studies in Pastoral Ministry at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary and has completed three units of Clinical Pastoral Education.

Known for his compassionate pastoral care and dedication to the Gospel, he has ministered to congregations across Massachusetts and Connecticut. He currently serves the Sinai, Canaan, and Ephraim French Seventh-day Adventist Churches. Inspired by Psalm 46, his ministry is guided by Joshua's declaration: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

PASTOR UBA OGBUEHI

QUEENS, NEW YORK

Pastor Uba Ogbuehi felt a strong call to pastoral ministry while serving as First Elder of the City Tabernacle Seventh-day Adventist Church in Harlem, New York. Responding to this call, he enrolled at Oakwood University, where he earned a Master of Arts degree in Pastoral Studies and Church Development. He was subsequently hired by the Northeastern Conference in May 2022 and assigned to the Beacon Light Tabernacle Seventh-day Adventist Church, where he currently serves. He also pastors the New Life Seventh-day Adventist Mission in Hyde Park, New York. Serving these two congregations has been a tremendous blessing to his ministry.

Pastor Ogbuehi finds great joy in seeing men and women surrender their lives to Jesus Christ and in nurturing them on their journey of faith. Through his ministry, God has used him to lead many individuals into a relationship with Christ. He has participated in numerous evangelistic initiatives both locally and internationally, resulting in many baptisms. His ministry is anchored in his favorite scripture, Romans 1:16–17: “For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes.”

Pastor Ogbuehi is scheduled to graduate this year with a Doctor of Ministry degree from Roberts Wesleyan University. He is especially grateful for the love and support of his family. He has been married to his best friend, Darline, for nearly 21 years, and together they are blessed with four wonderful children: Annabelle, Jesse, Justin, and Abigaille.

PASTOR SELVIN S. STEWART

QUEENS, NEW YORK

Pastor Selvin Stewart's call to ministry unfolded over nearly three decades, from 1989 to 2017, through a series of providential experiences, mentors, and unmistakable impressions of the Holy Spirit. A defining moment in this journey brought renewed conviction and redirected his life toward pastoral ministry.

His ministry has been marked by spiritual transformation and community impact. From his early years in Trench Town, Jamaica, through service in East Rural St. Andrew and now in Connecticut, God has used him to restore broken families, strengthen marriages, rekindle hope, and lead more than 260 individuals to Christ through evangelism and pastoral care.

His educational background combines Christian and public education. He earned an Associate of Science in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts in Religion and Theology from Northern Caribbean University. He also holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Education from The Mico University College and served as an educator for 25 years before entering full-time ministry.

Pastor Stewart has been married to Teisha Tamara King-Stewart for 27 years. Together they have four children and three grandchildren.

His ministry philosophy is rooted in Ecclesiastes 9:4 and the conviction that no one is beyond God's saving grace. Guided by Christ's method of ministry and the Great Commission, his vision is to see everyone included in God's redemptive plan.

PASTOR PETRICE A. WIDEMAN

QUEENS, NEW YORK

Pastor Petrice A. Wideman is a dedicated servant leader whose ministry is rooted in a deep commitment to Christ-centered leadership, spiritual growth, and community engagement. Through prayer and reflection, she embraced God’s call to pastoral ministry, dedicating her life to serving others with clarity, compassion, and purpose.

She currently serves as Pastor of the Stuyvesant Heights Seventh-day Adventist Church in Brooklyn, New York. Her ministry experience includes service in local church, university, and healthcare settings, notably as Assistant Pastor of the Mt. Vernon Seventh-day Adventist Church and as Administrative and Creative Pastor at One Place Fellowship on the campus of Andrews University.

Pastor Wideman holds a Bachelor of Science in General Studies with a concentration in Music, a Master of Arts in Communications, and a Master of Divinity from Andrews University Theological Seminary. She is currently pursuing a PhD in Change Leadership for Equity and Inclusion at the University of Central Arkansas.

Known for her Bible-centered and practical preaching, she is passionate about helping individuals encounter Christ, deepen their faith, and discover their God-given purpose. She values meaningful worship, spiritual formation, and inclusive ministry that responds to the needs of diverse communities.

Pastor Wideman is the proud mother of two daughters, Joy-Cherice and Destiny. Her life and ministry are guided by Micah 6:8: “Do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God.”
