THIS IS MY STORY

DECEMBER 27, 1941 – MAY 27, 2025

THE MEMOIR OF PASTOR TREVOR H. C. BAKER

From the rugged coastline of St. Lucy, Barbados to leadership within the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, my story is not a tale of fame, but a testimony of God's leading and faithfulness—53 years of gospel ministry, community service, devotion to youth and leadership in the Church I grew to love deeply.

December 27, 1941, I came into the world in the picturesque coastal parish of St. Lucy, Barbados. My parents (deceased), were Terrance Edison and Ruby Baker and deeply Anglican. I was the eldest of five children. I shared my childhood with my sister Waveney (deceased), and brothers Marlow (deceased), Aubrey Rawle, and Kyle Andre. Early on, I dreamt of becoming either a jazz pianist or a dentist. But my spiritual path took a dramatic turn as a teenager when my family moved into the home of a devout Seventh-day Adventist relative. Faced with a firm spiritual ultimatum—no “heathens under my roof”—I reluctantly attended church on Sabbaths at the Mile and a Quarter SDA Church. A particular weekly Sabbath services caught my interest, the Missionary Volunteers (MV) meetings on Sabbath afternoons. It was discovered that I played piano and was invited to play the organ, the only instrument at the Church. As time progressed, I became involved in assisting in the writing of skits, and other facets of the weekly youth programming. Eventually, Pastor Milton Niblett led an evangelistic series in 1958 and asked me to serve as the backup Pianist because his wife was unable serve at that time. Before the series ended, I was baptized in the Caribbean Sea in June of 1958. This would be the start of my personal and lifelong commitment to serve God fully.

In 1959, my family and I immigrated to the United States and settled in Brooklyn, New York. There, I attended Central Evening High School to complete my senior year. I immediately became active at Bethel SDA Church on Grand Avenue, in Brooklyn, NY, teaching Sabbath School and playing the piano. My gifts found fertile ground in this vibrant faith community. It was at Bethel that I created the Bible Bowl, a quiz game modeled after the College Quiz Bowl, a show that had been airing on the NBC Radio Network since 1953, now known as the Honda Campus All-Star Challenge. My Bible Bowl game encouraged in-depth Bible study and friendly competition and became a regular part of AY.

In those days, I held several jobs, including working as a shop and machine attendant at a knitting mill and managing tellers at a bank. But only briefly as these jobs required working on the Sabbath which I vowed to the Lord I would not compromise. Eventually, I found work at the New York Public Library that honored the Sabbath. Yet, I couldn't escape the persistent call to ministry and in 1963, with $600 and faith in God, I took a bus to Alabama and enrolled at Oakwood College (now Oakwood University). I worked as a student groundskeeper for 70 cents an hour, later earning $1.50 an hour as editor of the Acorn, the student yearbook. Summers were spent, at Victory Lake as camp counselor, and colporting in either Chicago, Detroit, Flint or NYC. Despite the intense workload to cover tuition, I graduated in four years in - 1967. That summer, I married my college sweetheart, Sandra Brown and began my pastoral internship at Linden Boulevard SDA Church, (Now Linden SDA church). Both the South Atlantic and Northeastern Conferences offered sponsorship for graduate studies. I accepted one, and my wife and I moved to Berrien Springs, Michigan, where I earned my Master of Divinity from Andrews University in 1969.

My first pastoral district was Mount Carmel SDA Church in Syracuse, NY, where I held my first tent effort and I was ordained to the gospel ministry in 1973. I was later transferred to Corona SDA Church, under the leadership of my mentor and father in the ministry, President George R. Earle. Corona SDA church became a spiritual powerhouse, especially for youth who would later credit my ministry as a pivotal influence in their walk with Christ. It was while pastoring at the Corona church in 1976, that I received an unexpected call to serve as the Youth Director of Northeastern Conference. With camp meeting just two weeks away, I put together the summer camp program and served as the youth camp meeting worship speaker the first sabbath. On my first day on the job, I was met by an empty office, no staff, no budget, and no clear job description—only a desk, a telephone, and my Bible. I knelt in prayer and told the Lord, "If You've truly called me here, then You must show me what to do." Over the next 15 years, the Lord helped me do just that. With His help, I led an impactful and productive era of youth ministry in the Northeastern Conference, shaping and expanding its scope while spearheading numerous transformative programs and initiatives, including:

Annual Leadership Training Events for AY and Pathfinder leaders.

Summer Camp Director program, six-week overnight Summer Camps at Victory Lake for children ages 8-15.

Senior Youth Retreats that fostered spiritual growth and lifelong friendships.

The creation of the Youth Advisory Committee –a strategic "think tank" of experienced youth and Pathfinder leaders to advise and support ministry planning and initiatives.

The Biennial Youth Choir Festivals to showcase musical talents.

The Biennial Drama Festival to provide opportunities for youth to present original plays

Hymn Festivals - introduce youth and congregations to the then new Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal (1985). Choirs learned and presented lesser-known hymns, inspiring a greater appreciation for sacred music.

MY STORY CONT'D

Youth Olympics. originally a Pathfinder event, the Youth Olympics grew into a summer athletic event for all conference youth, providing Sabbath-appropriate competition and fellowship through sports.

Basketball Commission - Helped establish the Northeastern Conference Basketball Commission (NCBC) to offer supervised, church-based recreational basketball opportunities. The initiative fostered youth engagement across New York and New England.

Bible Bowl - Responding to a need for stronger youth devotion, the Bible Bowl I created years earlier while at Bethel church, was launched officially in 1979, encouraged deep Bible study and friendly competition.

Bible Conferences for Students attending Public School - To provide spiritual enrichment for SDA youth in public schools, - I organized Weekend retreats at Camp Victory Lake to focus on Biblical themes, previously only experienced by academy students.

Youth Congress - Every 3–4 years, a Conference-wide convocation was organized for spiritual training and fellowship. Cities included Poughkeepsie, Hartford, Springfield, Syracuse, and Albany.

Soapbox Derby - Under my leadership, the Soapbox Derby became a standout Pathfinder event. Pathfinder Clubs built and raced boxcars to national specifications—the only event of its kind in regional SDA conferences.

Youth Federations - I implemented the Youth Federation system to build leadership and community. Geographic federations (e.g., Bronx-Manhattan, New England North) elected officers and collaborated on events. Later, the Haitian and Hispanic federations were added.

Annual Youth Awards Banquet -, I established an Annual Youth Awards Banquet to celebrate youth excellence, to recognize achievements in Pathfinder and AY ministries, and to encourage pride and formality among young people.

Midway through my youth ministry period, I envisioned a Youth Center in metropolitan New York to serve both church and community. Though funding from the Conference was not available, I launched a grassroots "quarter-a-day" fundraiser and raised over $100,000 toward the dream. Successfully, executing so many initiatives served as evidence that the Lord undeniably called me to this ministry – a ministry I once tried to run away from, had become my divine purpose, and God used it to shape thousands of young lives across the Northeastern Conference and beyond. One song I wrote and frequently sang with campers echoes that journey:

"God has smiled on me,
He has set me free,
God has smiled on me, He's been good to me."

In 1990, after 15 years of dedicated service in youth ministry, I was unexpectedly appointed Executive Secretary of the Northeastern Conference. It was a major transition. I officially began in 1991, moving into a role that demanded broader oversight of churches, schools, and workers. The years as Conference Secretary presented me with different and wider challenges. In the midst of leading this rich and fruitful ministry, I faced deep personal sorrow. My beloved wife Sandra, of 31 years, struggled with illness since our time at Corona SDA church, passed away. Despite the pain, I leaned upon the promise of the resurrection and modeled enduring hope for those I served. In 1999, I found love again and married Eunice Senior. Together, we raised one son, Joel Milliner.

In 2002, I was called to assume the Presidency of the Northeastern Conference. The Conference was at that time drowning in over $20 million in debt, largely due to an oversized payroll. I gathered my leadership team: Pastor Larry Bailey, Secretary and Seth Bardu, Treasurer and we fasted and prayed, asking God to help us "act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly" (Micah 6:8). One of my contributions, spearheaded by my wife, Eunice Baker, was the creation of the Human Resource department and a comprehensive employee manual, which established clear job roles and responsibilities of every worker. By 2004, financial stability was improving, and the Conference successfully eliminated two major bonds totaling $6 million and lifted heavy liens from key Conference properties. We faced hard decisions, made deep cuts, and restructured with compassion. Through it all, God was faithful. In 2012, I humbly passed on the baton of the presidential position with reduced debt and a stronger financial position.

In the last chapter of my ministry, God led me to pastor the church I called "The little white church by the side of the road," The South Ozone Park Seventh-day Adventist Church in Queens, New York. I was installed on December 12, 2012. My wife Eunice and I faithfully served the church for eight fulfilling years, fostering love, spiritual growth, community outreach, and consistent evangelism. Ministry highlights included Revelation Seminars, baptisms, youth Bible Bowl participation, and launched a Food Pantry that connected the church to its surrounding community.

In my final years, reflecting on the 53 years of life spent in the gospel ministry, I can only conclude that the Lord did indeed lay His hands on me. Whereas there were certain things that I had aspired to become and to achieve in life, such as a jazz pianist, dentist or banker; but God had a different plan. I am grateful to Him for His overriding guidance and care, and for the privilege He did afford me to partner with Him in sharing the good news of the third angel's message. It all began with my aunt's simple desire for me to attend church, and her determination that she would have 'no heathen' abiding in her house."

My story is not one of personal ambition, but of surrender. From the shores of Barbados to the skyscrapers of New York, from playing a humble organ in a tiny church to leading a Conference of thousands, I have seen the hand of God move mountains. I've loved, I've cried, prayed, and rejoiced. And through every chapter, God's smile has been upon me. Now I can rest in peace knowing that I've done my best for the Master.

THIS IS MY STORY.

SCRIPTURES

JOB 19:23-25 KJV

Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24

That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

25

For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

REVELATION 21:1-5 KJV

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth:
for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5

And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:50-58

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, [1] where is thy victory?

56

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

HYMNS

#598 - WATCH, YE SAINTS

Watch, ye saints, with eyelids waking;
Lo! The powers of heaven are shaking;
Keep your lamps all trimmed an burning,
Ready for your Lord's returning.

Refrain

Lo! He comes, lo! Jesus comes;
Lo! He come, He comes all glorious!
Jesus comes to reign victorious,
Lo! He comes, yes, Jesus comes.

2

Lo! the promise of your Savior,
Pardoned sin and purchased favor,
Blood-washed robes and crowns of glory;
Haste to tell redemption's story.

3

Kingdoms at their base are crumbling,
Hark! His chariot wheels are rumbling;
Tell, O tell of grace abounding,
While the seventh trump is sounding.

4

Nations wane, though proud and stately;
Christ His kingdom hasteneth greatly;
Earth her latest pangs is summing;
Shout, ye saints, your Lord is coming.

5

Sinners, come, while Christ is pleading;
Now for you He's interceding;
Haste, ere grace and time diminished
Shall proclaim the mystery finished.

#214 - I HAVE THIS HOPE

We have this hope that burns within our
heart,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
We have this faith that Christ alone imparts,
Faith in the promise of His Word.
We believe the time is here,
When the nations far and near
Shall awake, and shout and sing
Hallelujah! Christ is King!
We have this hope that burns within our
heart,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.

2

We are united in Jesus Christ our Lord.
We are united in His love.
Love for the waiting people of the world,
People who need our Savior's love.
Soon the heav'ns will open wide,
Christ will come to claim His bride,
All the universe will sing
Hallelujah! Christ is King!
We have this hope this faith, and God's great love,
We are united in Christ.

HYMNS CONT'D

THERE'S A LAND THAT IS FAIRER THAN DAY,

There's a land that is fairer than day,
And by faith we can see it afar,
For the Father waits over the way
To prepare us a dwelling place there.

Refrain:

In the sweet by and by,
We shall meet on that beautiful shore;
In the sweet by and by,
We shall meet on that beautiful shore.

2

We shall sing on that beautiful shore
The melodious songs of the blest;
And our spirits shall sorrow no more-
Not a sigh for the blessing of rest.

3

To our bountiful Father above
We will offer our tribute of praise
For the glorious gift of His love
And the blessings that hallow our days.

SHALL WE GATHER AT THE RIVER

Shall we gather at the river,
where bright angel feet have trod,
with its crystal tide forever flowing by the throne of God?

Refrain

Yes, we'll gather at the river,
the beautiful, the beautiful river;
gather with the saints at the river
that flows by the throne of God.

2

On the margin of the river,
washing up its silver spray,
we will walk and worship ever,
all the happy golden day.

3

Ere we reach the shining river,
lay we every burden down;
grace our spirits will deliver,
and provide a robe and crown.

4

Soon we'll reach the shining river,
soon our pilgrimage will cease;
soon our happy hearts will quiver with the melody of peace.

HOW SWEET ARE THE TIDINGS

How sweet are the tidings that greet the pilgrim's ear,
As he wanders in exile from home!
Soon, soon will the Savior in glory appear,
And soon will the kingdom come.

Refrain

He's coming, coming, coming soon I know,
Coming back to this earth again;
And the weary pilgrims will to glory go,
When the Savior comes to reign.

2

The mossy old graves where the pilgrims sleep
Shall be open as wide as before,
And the millions that sleep in the mighty deep
Shall live on this earth once more.

3

There we'll meet ne'er to part in our happy Eden home, Sweet songs of redemption we'll sing;

From the north, from the south, all the ransomed shall come,
And worship our heavenly King.

4

Hallelujah, Amen! Hallelujah again!
Soon, if faithful, we all shall be there;
O, be watchful, be hopeful, be joyful till then,
And a crown of bright glory we'll wear.

BLESSED ASSURANCE

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine;
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

2

Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

3

Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

TRIBUTES/CONDOLENCES'

To my dear Pastor, mentor and friend:

I thank God for the privilege He afforded me to allow our paths to intersect, and for the opportunity to build a solid friendship that weathered the test of time. Your life was a living testimony of a man of God. To me, you were the truest example of a Christ-like, humble, leader: Godly, wise, kind, compassionate, fair, knowledgeable and patient. You listened to understand, not to condemn. You spoke to encourage, not to belittle. You lived to glorify God, not yourself. You were the epitome of a servant leader. I miss you Pastor B. By God's grace, as we promised, we will meet by the Tree of Life..never more to part. Sleep on my favorite President..sleep on.

TRIBUTES/ CONDOLENCES CONT'D

In Memory of Trevor H. C. Baker Pastor Baker strode in our midst at a time when our conference needed him the most. During a time of average men, he always stood a little taller in humility than anyone else. He was numbered among the few men I knew who, like David, was anointed king, but led with a shepherd's mentality. He offered a leadership that was purpose-driven, unflappable and unyielding. Like Churchill, he had a way of making words fight like soldiers and lifted the spirit of conferences, unions, and a division. By precept and example he taught us that true leadership is more than budgets and balance sheets. It is a matter of moral purpose. And that moral realm is reached by that insight and rhetoric of which only the truly great are capable. His years of unprecedented labor, service, and sacrifice in our conference has not gone unnoticed. He slipped the surly bonds of earth to kiss the Face of God. Rest in peace soldier of the cross and take your well-deserved rest. We will see you in the morning. (sent with Gentle Effect)

I have a friend in Florida that was praying for his family during our morning devotional . She never forgot this windy man and all the fin she had in Bible Bowls because of Pastor Trevor Baker. I remember when my son and my goddaughter were running around at Camp Victory Lake for summer camp. Both children went at different times and both were apprehensive about going the first week and I always had to come up with funds so they could stay longer. 🙏🙏🙏

So sorry, Kyle. Trevor was a wonderful man of God. He was my Conference Youth Director, then later we were colleagues. He inspired me to engage my young people in Bible Bowl. His enthusiasm was infectious. When we get to heaven I expect to hear his voice saying: "Right, you've got it!" When the correct answer is given. Let's prepare to meet him there. You and your family are in our prayers during this difficult season. Remain encouraged and faithful! 🙏

Pastor Trevor Baker was the Lindennaires Concert Chorale's Pastor for many years. He was a big supporter and Choperone at many youth congress. He'll surely be missed. Sister Coleta Small and The Lindennaires Concert Chorale Family.

Elder Baker has always been a giant in my eyes. His humble spirit will continue to be an example that I aspire to. Whatever position he held he always remained the same. Each time I saw him in recent years he always reminded me that Karen remained on his prayer list for the past 20 years. Some years ago he preached a sermon entitled "Afterwards" that I still remember. He reminded us that we are to hold on through the pain and sorrow of life because there will surely be an Afterwards that will yield a peaceful fruit of righteousness. And so "Afterwards" Elder Baker, after you have rested, there will be a great resurrection. Looking forward to that "Afterwards" when there will be peace in the Valley. See you in the morning Elder. Lovingly submitted your friends Karen and Bernard

He rests in peace as his soul sleeps, awaiting the call of the Life-giver. I pray for the comfort and peace of Sis. Eunice, the Baker family and the Northeastern Conference he served with such dignity and honor. Yea, he rests from his labor, and his works do follow him. "On that bright and cloudless morning when the dead in Christ shall rise and the glory of His resurrection share, when the [saved of earth shall gather] to their home beyond the skies, and the roll is called up yonder," Pastor Trevor H.C. Baker will be there. This is the blessed hope which he lived by. May God comfort you all.

Rest Well 😊 I am a result of his work in Youth Ministry for Northeastern Conference. I was a Bible Bowl Player before becoming a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. I along with my team mates represented our local church (which he pastored) and the Northeastern Conference at the National Bible Bowl Competition on more than one occasion. The legacy that he leaves behind played an integral part in planting God's Word DEEPLY into my heart.

He catered to my need. I never had vegetarian as in processed food. Went to CVL as a count and cried the living eye water. He called my uncle to bring me chicken. My stay at CVL had me tolerating the imitation meats. Still not a fan today. I really appreciated that he had understanding, he cared, and he had compassion. You are right, he was stern but it did not make you afraid to talk with him. He meant good. He truly was a great leader.

Every summer, NEC "Camp Victory Lake" at Hyde Park, Upstate NY, felt like a vacation for many of us kids from the city. But one of the highlights was afternoons at the Big Youth Tent with Pastor Trevor Baker during Bible Bowl. Those times were electrifying and powerful. He gave so much enthusiasm in those moments that kept us looking forward year after year. If you answered right, you'd hear him say that unforgettable "Right!" or "Right On!"

Before I took these photos of him in 2017 at a church event, he stopped to talk with me for a while about life and ministry. He seemed to have had a way of being fully present during the conversation, and it felt like catching up with an old friend.

So many of our giants have fallen asleep... but the bible preacher says that one day, we will be changed at the sound of the last trumpet....

In Memory of Trevor H. C. Baker Pastor Baker strode in our midst at a time when our conference needed him the most. During a time of average men, he always stood a little taller in humility than anyone else. He was numbered among the few men I knew who, like David, was anointed king, but led with a shepherd's mentality. He offered a leadership that was purpose-driven, unflappable and unyielding. Like Churchill, he had a way of making words fight like soldiers and lifted the spirit of conferences, unions, and a division. By precept and example he taught us that true leadership is more than budgets and balance sheets. It is a matter of moral purpose. And that moral realm is reached by that insight and rhetoric of which only the truly great are capable. His years of unprecedented labor, service, and sacrifice in our conference has not gone unnoticed. He slipped the surly bonds of earth to kiss the Face of God. Rest in peace soldier of the cross and take your well-deserved rest. We will see you in the morning. (sent with Gentle Effect)

On behalf of the Richards-Usher family, we convey our deepest condolences to you, Eunice. Pr. Baker was good to our family last year. On May 23, 2024, both you and Pr. Baker attended my brother funeral in Limón Costa Rica. You both brought a comforting presence. I will always remember Pr. Baker, especially on those Noche Buena nights. May he rest in peace. We will see him again on that glorious morning when Jesus returns. Hang in Eunice with hope.

Legendary Youth Leader and Bible Bowl Quiz Master. I still hear: "Right you are". Even when he became president, he still maintained a level of humility and servant hood that was exemplary as a leader. My condolences to the family and all that are grieving.

Pastor Baker was like my Uncle from another grandmother. He gave me my 1st job as C.I.T at CVL. Because of his leadership and example I stayed there for many many years all the way to Camp Nurse. Though a stern man upfront he was like butter once he got to know you. His mere presence commanded much respect. I remember just going to the Conference office just to see him to say hello, he never turned my unexpected visits away. Was happy he moved to GA but I only got a few glimpses of him. Glad he was able to have the West End Church experience once in a while.

Sorry to hear his time on earth is no more, Well done thy good and faithful servant. Never will forget him. Just a few weeks ago he texted me condolences for my Aunty.
